About us

Customer first support, Award winning products, Innovative ideas

Since 1923 Francotyp-Postalia Ltd has been operating in the UK and for over 20 years we have been simply known as FP. FP's head office is based in Berlin, Germany with subsidiaries across the world.

FP have always been at the forefront of innovation, introducing the first automatic franking machine, the first electronic franking machine, the first digital franking machine, the first inkjet machine and the first multi-carrier machine to meet the new de-regulated age. We are always working on new, innovative ways to enhance the ways our customers can process their outgoing mail.

First class support

UK based support centre, dedicated to you

We pride ourselves on our customer service. Our team work hard to ensure that our customers receive the very best care, both before and after the purchase of their FP product. We also have a team of highly skilled service technicians to assist you throughout your contract with FP.

In our  FP Support centre:

- ✓ 98% of calls are answered within 45 seconds
- ✓ One dedicated team for anything you need (technical support, accounts queries, general enquiries)

We are always looking at ways to improve our customer support; that's why we ask our customers to let us know how we're doing through online reviews and customer relationship management calls.
